Apollo is a Great Place to Work at!

Apollo Hospitals Enterprise, founded by Dr Prathap C Reddy, has been ranked amongst the top 36 organisations to work for Global Workplace engagement. It has been awarded with the Gallup Great Places to Work Award (GGWA). Gallup Great Places to Work (GGWA) is awarded to organisations that have performed exceptionally in engaging their workforce and thereby leveraging that to drive business results.

Dr Prathap C Reddy, founder and chairman, Apollo Hospitals Group said, “It’s a very proud moment to be recognised by one of the most reputable studies. It speaks volumes of our company, its culture and above all, its people. We sincerely thank our employees for their unwavering support and efforts in helping Apollo evolve as a great place to work.”

Commenting on this joyous occasion, Preetha Reddy, managing director, Apollo Hospitals said, “The award is recognition for Apollo’s exceptional leadership that understands the fact that engaging employees drive real business outcomes. It makes me immensely proud. This recognition is a reflection of the work done by every team member at Apollo Hospitals. I thank them all for their hard work and dedication towards making Apollo Hospitals a great place to work.” A visibly glad Sangita Reddy, executive director, Apollo Hospitals emphasised that the reward was a testimony of the values Apollo espoused. She said, “The values espoused by us such as developing every team member as a leader, building and sustaining equality in diversity and always doing what’s right for our patients makes a good reason for Apollo bagging the award.”

Gallup awards recognise the unique approach that organisations take to achieve engagement success through prestigious award categories like Essence of
